Relative clause activity

Identify the relative clause 2

Look at the following sentences and identify the part that contains the relative clause, and then decide whether they are subject or object relative clauses, and whether they are defining or non-defining:

1. The jacket that I bought last week has already ripped.
2. My grandmother, who is 85 years old, still bakes delicious pies.
3. This is the movie that everyone has been talking about.
4. The artist who painted this mural is very famous.
5. My phone, which I left on the train, was found by a kind stranger.
6. The man whom you saw in the lobby is the CEO of the company.
7. I will never forget the holiday that we spent in Greece.
8. The new teacher, who started last month, is really popular with the students.
9. The book that I borrowed from the library is due tomorrow.
10. Our cat, which hates being alone, always follows us around the house.
11. The scientist who discovered this vaccine is giving a lecture tonight.
12. The park, which is located in the city centre, is a popular spot for picnics.

© yourENGLISHPAL.com

Answers:

1. The jacket that I bought last week has already ripped. (defining/object)
2. My grandmother, who is 85 years old, still bakes delicious pies. (non-defining/subject)
3. This is the movie that everyone has been talking about. (defining/object)
4. The artist who painted this mural is very famous. (defining/object)
5. My phone, which I left on the train, was found by a kind stranger. (non-defining/object)
6. The man whom you saw in the lobby is the CEO of the company. (defining/object)
7. I will never forget the holiday that we spent in Greece. (defining/object)
8. The new teacher, who started last month, is really popular with the students. (non-defining/subject)
9. The book that I borrowed from the library is due tomorrow. (defining/object)
10. Our cat, which hates being alone, always follows us around the house. (non-defining/subject)
11. The scientist who discovered this vaccine is giving a lecture tonight. (defining/subject)
12. The park, which is located in the city centre, is a popular spot for picnics. (non-defining/subject)

© yourENGLISHPAL.com